Review of Ethics Ordinance

Annual review of the Ethics Ordinance

1. Code of Ethics
2. Ordinance 22-088-00

ARTICLE 9.05
CODE OF ETHICS

§ 9.05.001. Declaration of policy.

- (a) It is essential in a democratic system that the public have confidence in the integrity, independence, and impartiality of those who act on their behalf in government. To promote confidence in the government of the city, and thereby enhance the city's ability to function effectively, this article is adopted. Although codes of ethics can provide instruction on what to do in various situations, the situations will always be more varied than the rules can anticipate. Recognizing this, the ethics commission (the "commission") will apply this article to not only enforce regulations, but also to enhance and promote virtue in public servants who are its officers, city officials or employees, paid or unpaid, elected or appointed, as well as members of any standing committee or board.
- (b) Furthermore, it is declared to be the policy of the city that proper operation of democratic government requires that public servants be independent, impartial and responsible to the people of the city; that no public servants shall permit any interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, or engagement in any business, transaction or professional activity to conflict with the proper discharge of their duties in the public interest; that public office not be used for illegal or improper personal gain; and that the city council at all times shall be maintained as a nonpartisan body. To implement such a policy, the city council deems it advisable to enact a standard of conduct for all public servants to serve not only as a guide for official conduct, but also as a basis for discipline for those who refuse to abide by its terms. The overriding interest being that public servants of the city shall at all times strive to avoid even the appearance of impropriety.
- (c) The city further recognizes that public servants are also members of society and, therefore, cannot and should not be without any personal and economic interest in the decisions and policies of government; that public servants retain their rights as citizens to interests of a personal or economic nature, and their rights to publicly express their views on matters of general public interest. By prohibiting conduct incompatible with the city's best interests and minimizing the risk of any appearance of impropriety, this article will further legitimize the interests of democracy.

(Ordinance 16-006-00, art. 1, adopted 1/7/16)

§ 9.05.002. Purpose.

This article has four purposes;

- (1) To encourage high ethical standards in official conduct by public servants;
- (2) To establish minimum guidelines for ethical standards of conduct for all such public servants by setting forth those acts or actions that are incompatible with the best interests of the city;

- (3) To require disclosure by public servants and candidates of private financial or property interests in matters affecting the city; and
- (4) To provide minimum standards of ethical conduct for the city's public servants, provide procedures regarding complaints for violations of such standards, and provide a mechanism for disciplining violators of such standards.

§ 9.05.004. Present public servants.

(a) Standards of conduct.

- (1) To avoid the appearance and risk of impropriety and self-enrichment, public servants shall not solicit or accept any gift, personal favor or benefit from any person doing business with, seeking to do business with, or being regulated by the city; and shall not take any action on behalf of any person or business entity from which he or she has received a prohibited gift, or in which he or she has a substantial interest. Except in the sole interest of the public and the performance of the duties of their position, public servants shall not take any action that he or she knows might reasonably tend to influence any other public servant to not properly perform their official duty, nor shall any public servant grant any improper favor, service or thing of value to any person.
- (2) As used in this article the word "gift" means a favor, hospitality, economic benefit, product or item having a value of $50.00, or $250.00 or more within a 12-month period. A "gift" does not include campaign contributions reported as required by state law, money, items, or benefits received from a relative if given on account of kinship, or any value received by will, intestate succession, or as a distribution from an inter vivos or testamentary trust established by a spouse or ancestor.

- (3) The following factors are considered in evaluating whether a gift is prohibited:
 - (A) The value of the gift, or gifts, does not exceed $250.00, during any twelve (12) consecutive calendar months;
 - (B) Any pre-existing relationship between the donor and donee;
 - (C) Whether the person or entity giving the gift, or on whose behalf the gift is made, has done business with or has been regulated by the city within the immediate proceeding twenty-four (24) calendar months, or is seeking to do business with the city, or does business with or is regulated by the city during the subsequent twelve (12) months.
 - (4) Those items or services that do not constitute prohibited gifts include, but are not limited to, the following:
 - (A) Political contributions made and reported in accordance with all applicable state laws.
 - (B) Awards publicly presented in recognition of public service.
 - (C) Entertainment, meals or refreshments furnished in conjunction with public events, appearances, or ceremonies related to official city business, if furnished by the sponsor of such public event, and meals and refreshments having a value of less than $50.00 when furnished or provided to the public servant during the conduct of public business.
 - (D) Any item received by a public servant and donated to a charitable organization or presented to the city within three (3) business day from the date of receipt; any item(s) other than money the value of which does not exceed $25.00 or $200.00 during any twelve (12) consecutive calendar months;

 - (G) Pens, pencils, calendars, t-shirts, caps and similar items containing logos, slogans, company names or other marketing material and commonly given out for advertising purposes.
 - (5) In determining whether or not acceptance if prohibited, the intent of this article is to avoid the appearance of self-enrichment by the public servant versus reasonable expenses necessary to conduct city business.
- (b) Personal financial interest.
- (1) Public servants of the city shall not participate in a vote or decision in which they have a direct substantial financial interest. Ownership in an amount in excess of one percent (1%) of an entity or property shall constitute substantial interest. Where members of the city council have a substantial interest in business or in real property which is affected by a proposed city council action and where any conflict of interest may arise they shall file an affidavit of disclosure provided by the city secretary prior to the vote and abstain from voting on such matters.

- (2) No officer or employee of the city shall have a financial interest direct or indirect, or by reason of ownership of stock in a corporation, in a contract with the city, or be financially interested directly or indirectly in the sale to the city of land, materials, supplies or services except on behalf of the city as an officer or employee; provided, however, that the provision of this section shall only be applicable when the stock owned by the officer or employee exceeds one percent (1%) of the total capital stock of the corporation. Any violation of this shall render the contract voidable.
- (c) Confidential information. Public servants shall not disclose confidential or proprietary information, or any information they have acquired or obtained in the course of any fiduciary capacity or relationship, that could adversely influence the property, government, or affairs of the city, nor directly or indirectly use his or her position to secure official information about any person or entity for the financial benefit or gain of such public servant or any third party. Public servants shall not release confidential, proprietary or privileged information for any purpose other than the performance of official responsibilities. It shall be a defense to any complaint under this section that the release of information serves a legitimate public purpose, as opposed to the private financial or political interest of the public servant or any third party or group.
- (d) Use of city property. Public servants shall not use, request or permit the use of city facilities, personnel, equipment, or supplies for any purpose other than to conduct city business unless otherwise provided by law, ordinance or written city policy; or as specifically authorized by the city manager as a convenience to the city, or by terms of employment, e.g. assigned use of a city vehicle.
- (e) Conflict of interest.
 - (1) Public servants shall not for pay, profit, compensation, financial gain or benefit represent or appear on behalf of themselves or on behalf of the private interests of others before the city council or other city board, commission, or committee, or represent the private interest of others in any action or proceeding involving the city.
 - (2) No current members of the city council shall personally appear on their own behalf or on behalf of a third party before the city council or any board, commission or committee but may designate and be represented by a person of their choice in any such personal business matter. This prohibition does not apply where council members appear before the ethics commission on their own behalf.

- (3) No current board or commission member shall personally appear on their own behalf or on behalf of a third party before the board or commission upon which they serve or before the city council on matters brought before the board or commission on which they serve, but may designate and be represented by a person of their choice in any such business matter. Board or commission members are prohibited from engaging in private discussions with any applicant or owner regarding issues to be considered by their board or commission or from seeking to influence the outcome of any decision outside of a public meeting. This prohibition does not apply where board or commission members appear before the ethics commission on their own behalf. A member of any appointed committee or board shall remove himself/herself from deliberation regarding his/her interest.
- (f) Additional standards of conduct.
- (1) Conflicting outside employment.
 - (A) The purpose of this provision is to prevent conflicts of interest, conflicts of loyalty, and loss of efficiency at work
 - (B) This provision does not prevent employees or officials from accepting other employment or following any pursuit which in no way interferes with the full and faithful discharge of their public duties, provided that the employees comply with all applicable city requirements.
 - (C) A city official or paid city employee shall not solicit, accept or engage in concurrent outside employment or enter into any contract which could impair independence of judgment in, or the faithful performance of, their official duties, or that results in a conflict of interest with their duties as an official or employee of the city.
 - (D) City employees must inform their supervisor before engaging in off-duty employment. City employees must consider the policy of purpose and must be aware of the policy and general rule as stated above.
 - (2) Political activity. Limitations on the political activities of city officials and employees are imposed by state law, the city charter, and city personnel rules. In addition, the following ethical restrictions apply:
 - (A) No employee shall solicit or receive contributions to the campaign funds of any candidate for city office or take part in the management, affairs, or political campaign of any city candidate. Current members of the city council who are seeking re-election may engage in any activity on behalf of their own campaign efforts. The following is a list of activities that are, except as specifically provided otherwise, permissible within the sole discretion of the individual employees.

- (ii) The placement of bumper stickers on personal vehicles, except those vehicles supported in whole or in part by a car allowance provided by the city.

- (iv) The donation of a political contribution that does not exceed the statutory limit for non-reportable contributions; provided that a candidate for, and the occupant of, an elective city office is prohibited from soliciting contributions from city employees.

This subsection (2) shall be narrowly construed and in no event shall this section be construed or interpreted to prevent any officer, employee, councilmember, mayor or public servant from expressing his or her personal opinion regarding any candidate for office, or any other matter of public interest: provided that city employees shall not, while in uniform or on duty, make public comments or statements concerning any candidate for elective city office. Private statements or comments made by any officer or employee of the city to any other officer or employee of the city concerning any candidate for elective city office are not subject to this section.

(3) Other interests.

- (A) Non-profit board membership. While membership is encouraged a council member who serves on the board of a public or private non-profit organization shall have a voice but no vote on any funding request or contract with the city by that organization, unless the organization has a board of directors or trustees appointed in whole or in part by the city council, commission or board members.

(Ordinance 16-006-00, art. 3, adopted 1/7/16; Ordinance 16-096-00, sec. 3, adopted 1/5/17; Ordinance 21-016-00, sec. 3, adopted 3/18/21)

- (c) The members of the commission shall be identified by place numbers one (1) through seven (7). - (d) Vacancies. All vacancies shall be filled by the city council for the unexpired term. A member shall hold office until his successor has been appointed by the city council.
- (e) Election of chairperson and vice-chairperson. The commission shall elect a chairperson and a vice-chairperson to one (1) year terms. In the event the chairperson or vice-chairperson vacates their position then an election to fill the vacancy shall occur at the next meeting when the full board is seated.
- (f) Quorum. Four (4) or more members of the commission shall constitute a quorum, but no action of the commission shall be of any force or effect unless it is adopted by the favorable vote of four (4) or more members.

- (g) Annual review of ethics ordinance. The commission shall meet at least once a year to review this article and may make recommendations to the city council for amendments thereto.
- (h) Advisory opinions and recommendations. The commission shall render advisory opinions and make recommendations to the city council on potential conflicts of interest or violations of this article at the request of a public servant. Such advisory opinions and recommendations shall be rendered thirty (30) calendar days after a request or complaint is received by the commission, unless the commission requests, and is granted one thirty (30) calendar day extension by the city council. This subsection shall not be applicable to complaints filed with the commission.
- (i) Defense to alleged violations. It shall be a defense to an alleged violation of this article that the person accused previously requested, and received, an advisory opinion and recommendation from the commission, and acted on such opinion or recommendation in good faith, unless material facts were omitted or misstated by the person requesting the opinion. Such advisory opinion and recommendation shall also be binding on the commission in any subsequent charges concerning the person who requested the opinion and recommendation.
- (j) Disposition of alleged ethics violations.
 - (1) A sworn complaint based on personal knowledge alleging a violation(s) of this article shall specify the provision(s) of this article alleged to have been violated, and shall name the public servant being charged.
 - (2) Upon the aforesaid sworn complaint of any person being filed with the city secretary's office, or on its own initiative, the commission shall consider possible violations of this article by any public servant. A complaint shall not be deemed to be filed on the initiative of the commission, save and except the complaint be signed and sworn by two (2) members of the commission, one of which is the chairperson of the commission, after consultation with the legal counsel of the commission. A complaint filed by an individual member of the commission shall be deemed to have been filed in the commission member's capacity as a private citizen and, in such event, the member of the commission filing the complaint shall not thereafter participate in a commission meeting at which such complaint is considered save and except the commissioner filing the complaint may participate as a complainant at such meeting.
 - (3) A complaint alleging a violation of this article must be filed with the city secretary within two (2) years from the date of the action alleged as a violation, and not afterward.
 - (4) Not later than three (3) business days after the city secretary receives a sworn complaint, the city secretary shall acknowledge the receipt of the complaint to the complainant, and provide a copy of the complaint to the city attorney, the independent counsel, the commission chair, and the person against whom the complaint was alleged. The commission chair with advice of the commission's legal counsel shall review the complaint to ensure compliance with subsection (1) above within five (5) business days of receipt of the complaint. If the complaint does not comply with the requirements of subsection (1) it shall be returned to the complainant with a written explanation of noncompliance. If the complainant does comply it shall be accepted by the commission. Not later than ten (10) business days after receipt of a complaint, the commission shall notify in writing the person who made the complaint and the person against whom the complaint was alleged, of a date for a preliminary hearing. If the commission does not hold a preliminary hearing within twenty (20) business days of receipt of the complaint, it shall notify the person who made the complaint of the reasons for the delay and shall subsequently give the complainant the appropriate notification.

- (5) The commission may consider possible violations on its own initiative. Within seven (7) business days of the commission's decision to consider a possible violation of this the commission shall draft a written complaint specifying the provision(s) of this article alleged to have been violated and shall file a copy with the city secretary, and provide a copy to the city attorney, the independent counsel, and the person against whom the complaint was alleged. Not later than fifteen (15) business days after the drafting of the complaint, the commission shall notify in writing the person against whom the complaint was alleged of the date for the preliminary hearing.
- (6) After a complaint has been filed, and during the pending hearing of a complaint before the commission, a member of the commission may not communicate directly or indirectly with any party or person about any issue of fact or law regarding the complaint, except at a meeting of the commission; provided that the chairperson may consult and coordinate with independent legal counsel.
- (7) As soon as reasonably possible, but in no event more than sixty (60) days after receiving a complaint, the commission shall conduct a preliminary hearing.
 - (A) The issue at a preliminary hearing shall be the existence of reasonable grounds to believe that a violation of this article has occurred. The person filing a complaint, or the independent counsel in cases considered upon the commission's own initiative, shall state the alleged violation and shall describe in narrative form the testimony and other evidence which would be presented to prove the alleged violations stated in the written complaint. Statements at a preliminary hearing shall be under oath, but there shall be no cross-examination or requests for persons or evidence issued for the hearing. Members of the commission may question the complainant, the public servant named in the complaint, or consult with the independent counsel for the commission in executive session.
 - (B) The public servant named in the complaint shall have the opportunity to respond, but is not required to attend or make any statement. The public servant may describe in narrative form the testimony and other evidence that would be presented to disprove the alleged violation. If the public servant agrees that a violation has occurred, he or she may so state and the commission may consider the appropriate sanction.

- (C) The complainant and the public servant named in the complaint shall have the right to representation by counsel.
 - (D) At the conclusion of the preliminary hearing, the commission shall decide whether a final hearing should be held. If the commission determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a violation of this article has occurred, it shall schedule a final hearing. If the commission does not determine that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a violation has occurred, the complaint shall be automatically dismissed. A decision to conduct a final hearing is not a finding that a violation has occurred.
 - (E) The commission, at any time during the preliminary hearing, may also dismiss a complaint if the complaint does not allege conduct which would be a violation of this article. Before a complaint is dismissed for failure to allege a violation, the complainant shall be permitted one opportunity, within ten (10) business days of such a preliminary hearing, to revise and resubmit the complaint.
 - (F) The complainant, the independent counsel, and public servant named in the complaint may ask the commission at a preliminary hearing to request certain persons and evidence for a final hearing, if one is scheduled.
- (8) Final hearing.
- (A) The final hearing shall be held as expeditiously as possible following the determination by the commission that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a violation of this article has occurred. In no event shall the hearing be held more than thirty (30) calendar days after said determination. The commission may grant two (2) postponements, not to exceed fifteen (15) calendar days each, upon the request of the public servant named in the complaint.
 - (B) The issue at a final hearing shall be whether a violation of this article has occurred. The commission shall make its determination based on clear and convincing evidence in the record. All witnesses shall make their statements under oath.
 - (C) If the commission determines that a violation has occurred, it shall state its findings in writing, shall identify the particular provision(s) of this article which have been violated, and within five (5) business days shall deliver a copy of the findings to the complainant, if any, the public servant named in the complaint, and the city secretary.
 - (D) If a complaint proceeds to a final hearing, the commission may request witnesses to attend and testify, administer oaths and affirmations, take evidence and request the production of books, papers records, or other evidence needed for the performance of the commission's duties or exercise of its powers, including its duties and powers of investigation.

(9) Sanctions.

- (A) If the commission determines that a violation of this article has occurred, it shall proceed directly to determination of the appropriate sanction(s), if any. Save and except for a violation of section 9.05.004(f)(2)(A)(iv), section 9.05.008(b) or section 9.05.009(f) of this article, a violation of this article shall not be subject to criminal penalties. The commission may receive additional testimony or statements before considering sanctions, but is not required to do so. If the public servant named in the complaint acted in reliance upon a written opinion of the city attorney, the commission shall consider that fact.
- (B) If the commission determines that a violation of this article has occurred, it may recommend that the city council impose one of the following sanctions:
 - (i) A letter of notification shall be the appropriate sanction when the violation is clearly unintentional, or when the public servant's violation was made in reliance on a written opinion of the city attorney. A letter of notification shall advise the public servant to whom it is directed of any steps to be taken to avoid future violations.
 - (ii) A letter of admonition shall be the appropriate sanction in those cases in which the commission finds that the violation is minor and/or may have been unintentional, but calls for a more substantial response than a letter of notification.
 - (iii) A reprimand shall be the appropriate sanction when the commission finds that a violation has been committed intentionally or through disregard of this article. A reprimand directed to a city official, council member, commission member shall be sent to the city council. A reprimand directed to an employee of the city shall be sent to the city manager and included in said employee's personnel file. A letter of reprimand directed to an elected city official shall be transmitted to the city secretary and shall be sent to the city council, and thereafter published in the official newspaper of the city.
 - (iv) A recommendation of removal from employment or a recommendation of suspension from employment, as well as a recommendation for length of suspension, shall be the appropriate sanction when the commission finds that a serious or repeated violation(s) of this article has been committed intentionally or through culpable disregard of this article by city employees. A recommendation of suspension of city employees shall be directed from the commission to the city manager. In most cases, the final authority to carry out such recommendations to suspend from employment and the length of suspension shall be with the city manager.

- (v) A letter of censure shall be the appropriate sanction when the commission finds that a serious or repeated violation(s) of this article has been committed intentionally or through culpable disregard of this article by an elected city official. A letter of censure directed to an elected city official shall be transmitted to the city secretary, and shall be sent to the city council, and thereafter published in the official newspaper of the city.

 - (1) Harass the person named in the complaint;
 - (2) Damage the respondent's reputation;
 - (3) Benefit the person filing the complaint either personally, professionally, or politically; or
 - (4) Damage a related third party;

the commission may recommend to the city council to take disciplinary action(s) against the individual who filed the complaint including but not limited to referral to law enforcement for investigation and filing of legal charges as outlined in subsection(s) (b), (c), or (d) of this section. The commission may also make recommendations for what other action(s) should be taken up to and including barring from the filing of further ethics complaints on the same or similar subject matter or event.

- (b) A person commits an offense if he knowingly communicates or circulates a report of a violation of this article by a public servant that he knows is false or baseless and that would ordinarily cause an official proceeding to be held by the ethics commission in response to the complaint. An offense under this section may be punishable by fine not to exceed the sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00). The commission may recommend to the city council that violations under this subsection (b) may be referred for criminal prosecution.

- (c) Any person who knowingly files a false sworn statement under this chapter is subject to criminal prosecution for perjury under the laws of the State of Texas Penal Code section 37.02. The commission may recommend to the city council that violations under this subsection (c) may be referred for criminal prosecution.
- (d) Any person who knowingly testifies under oath before the commission and knowingly makes a false statement material to the proceedings is subject to criminal prosecution for aggravated perjury under the laws of the State of Texas Penal Code section 37.03. The commission may recommend to city council that violations under this subsection (d) may be referred for criminal prosecution.
- (e) Proceedings under this section may be undertaken by the commission at any time after a complaint is dismissed.

Each calendar day the violation exists shall constitute a separate offense. Such penalty shall be in addition to all the other remedies provided herein.

(Ordinance 21-016-00, sec. 8, adopted 3/18/21)

§ 9.05.014. Reservations and exceptions.

Notwithstanding any other term or provision of this article, this article:

- (1) Is not applicable to the performance and behavior of officers, employees and public servants that does not violate a standard or provision set forth in this article;
- (2) Does not waive the authority and discretion of the city council to enforce higher standards for, or to supervise, provide oversight, appoint and remove, any officer, employee or public servant that is appointed by the city council; and
